

FISCAL NOTE

HB 253 - SB 1660

February 17, 2003

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the suspension of the license of a driver who was in an at-fault collision with a pedestrian child, who suffers serious bodily injury, on school property or on a highway with special speed limits. Specifies that such suspension shall be for six months for a first offense and one year for subsequent occurrences.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Exceeds $5,000 One-Time

Estimate assumes:

- an increase in state expenditures to modify computer systems in the Department of Safety to track such cases.
- The number of cases involved would be few.
